Why We Color Eggs at Easter

"The Syrian bulbul (nightingale) has the loveliest voice of all God's creatures and the saddest song ever heard. Shady coverts fringing the Jordan still shelter the bird that sings darkling.

"There is a legend that the bulbul sat in the olive tree in the garden of Joseph of Arimathea, and the night before the resurrection, through the darkness poured out her soul in sorrowing plaint above the still sleeper in the tomb wherein was never man laid. When the first Easter morning broke over the eastern hills the eggs in the nest of the brooding bird sparkled with gold, blue, orange and crimson; and so we color eggs at Easter for a memorial of the lone singer who sang by the holy sepulcher nineteen hundred years ago."—From "The City of the King," by Mrs. Law Wallace.

In Memory of Eathal Hagan

Today one year ago, a host of angels came and visited the home of mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hagan, and bore away our dear little brother Eathal. He was born Jan. 9th 1890, died March, 8th 1903, making his stay with us thirteen years when the death angel came and took him from us.

When a baby of two years old he was afflicted with epilepsy and suffered with it all these long years when death came to his relief. We miss his little dragging footsteps so much, but his sweet assurance to us to know he is a bright shining angel in heaven today, free from all suffering; yes, waiting and watching at the beautiful gates above for us.

Farewell dear Eathal! Yet again we hope to meet thee When the days of life have fled, When in Heaven with joy to greet thee Where no farewell tears are shed.

Written by his sisters, Mrs. Aurelia Saunders and Miss Mary Hagan.

THE NEWS.

Published at Statesboro, Ga.,
EVERY FRIDAY
By The Statesboro News Publishing Co.

Speed the day when the nations of the earth shall be bound together in a universal peace alliance through treaties of arbitration.

Mr. Leigh Hunt, who wants $25,000,000 to develop the cotton fields of the upper Nile, is also a person of poetic insight. And so is the man who believes that with $12,000 he can open a factory for the manufacture of opers.

It cannot be said that Russia has not improved her opportunity in Manchuria. She has built in three years the city of Harbin, which is modern in every respect, and today contains a population of 50,000 Russians and 40,000 Chinese, besides the soldiers. It is rapidly developing into the great flour mill of that region.

A Paris philosopher states that wars, crimes, famines and pestilences are a blessing to the world. That without them the earth would be so crowded that the fortunate ones would be walking on their lesser brothers' heads. This may be all well enough for philosophy, but it isn't very pleasant for the ones who have to shuffle off.

It has been discovered that Government clerks use carriages paid for by the Government for the purpose of making social calls, and Congress will put a stop to the practice. Evidently there is a concerted effort to make the Government clerk come down to the common level, observes the Chicago News.

The growth of immigration into this country, as shown in the annual report of Commissioner-General Frank P. Sargent, shows that the total number of foreigners who arrived into this country from Europe and Asia in the past year was 923,315, or 105,403 more than the greatest number reported for any one year heretofore. Of this enormous total the average immigration is placed at $67,400 persons, or thirty-two per cent. in excess of last year. Food for reflection is found in the fact that the greatest number of immigrants, 230,622, came from Italy, while Austria-Hungary and Russia furnished, respectively, 200,011 and 190,000, an increase of 54,022 over last year and 120,000, an increase of 28,716.

The extraordinary aggressiveness, push, and astuteness displayed by the Japanese in the opening of their war with Russia can have astonished only those who are not familiar with their history. Unlike the Chinese, who despise militarism, the Japanese have always been what William Adams, the first Englishman who ever lived among them, found them to be, early in the seventeenth century: "Curious above measure and valiant in warfare." They have always looked on fighting as a pleasure as well as a duty, and so highly was the life military esteemed that up to half a century ago soldiers and gentlemen were convertible terms, and the peasantry were not considered sufficiently elevated to participate in war.

New books and new editions published in this country in 1903, by the Publishers' Weekly count, numbered 7855, as against 7832 issued in 1902. Of the new books, 816 ranked with fiction; of the reprints, 644. In 1902 the figures were 838 and 650. The proportion of new fiction to history published in 1903 was less than two to one by a margin of thirty volumes. In 1880 the publications in history, new and reprinted, numbered only 182, a total of 1080 books in fiction. Biographical works new in 1903 were nearly half as many as the fiction volumes. Books of description, travel, etc., were less than one-fourth as numerous as the story books. In 1880 biography to fiction was as one to seven; travelers' descriptive, etc., about the same proportion. The figures for 1880 have been quoted as furnishing a basis for comparison in a period approximating twenty years. Those who, with President Eliot, maintain that the public taste for reading once established, the standard of matter read is sure to rise, will find in the comparisons given ample support of their claims. A great deal more poetry and drama was published last year than in 1902, more than twice as much as in 1880. Religious publications experienced a decided slump from 1902 to 1903, and gained but little in 1903. There was last year a considerable advance in the literature and collection of works' class.

CABINET TALKS CANAL.

Decision of French Court at Paris Discussed by President Roosevelt and His Advisors.

A Washington special says: A considerable part of Friday's session of the cabinet was devoted to a discussion of the situation relating to the Panama Canal.

Satisfaction was expressed that the French court, by its decision against the Colombian government had made it possible for the United States to close negotiations with the Panama Canal company for the transfer of its property and concession to this country.

That no delay of an unnecessary nature is now expected was evidenced by a plan read by Attorney General Knox informing the cabinet that a meeting of stockholders of the canal company had been called for April 25.

At that time a final action will be taken by the company in the transfer of the canal property to the United States. When the legal technicalities have been complied with on the part of the company to the satisfaction of the assistant attorney, Day and Russell, who are in Paris as representatives of this government, the United States will be in position to pay over to the company the $10,000,000 in gold and property. At the same time $10,000,000 will be paid to the republic of Panama.

Of the necessary amount $30,000,000 is on deposit in New York subject to the order of Secretary Shaw. The remaining $20,000,000 will be paid out of the current funds of the treasury.

While the receipts of the government each month now are sufficient to meet the expenditures, it is just possible that Secretary Shaw may issue an additional call upon the national bank depositories in order that the treasury may meet the payment of $30,000,000 without drawing too heavily on this funds now in the treasury.

It is desirable, in the opinion of the treasury officials, that the working balance of about $50,000,000 be kept in the treasury. The amount now on hand is about $45,000,000 and at the end of the month will approximate $60,000,000.

To retain $50,000,000 in the treasury, it may be deemed necessary to call on the government depositories for something like $10,000,000.

JUDGE SWAYNE CASE.

Is to Come Before House and Be Given a Test Vote, Says Washington Post.

The Washington Post of Saturday's issue says: An agreement has been reached whereby a resolution to impeach Judge Charles Swayne will be introduced in the House of Representatives on Monday next. The meeting was well attended and plans for extending the work of raising subscriptions were discussed.

Delegates to Cane Convention. Governor Terrell has completed the list of delegates from Georgia to the Interstate cane growers' convention, which will be held in Jacksonville, Fla., May 4, 5 and 6. Last year the convention was held at Macon.

The governor has named from five to ten delegates from each county in the state, these names having been furnished principally by Hon. Harvie Jordan, of Jasper; Hon. Dudley M. Hughes, president of the State Agricultural Society, and Hon. D. G. Purvis, of Savannah, president of the Interstate Cane Growers' Association.

Bug is Not Bee Weevil. The bug that was found in P. and Spalding counties, samples of which were sent to the state department of agriculture because it was thought to be the Mexican cotton boll weevil, is not, after all, the much dreaded pest, but a cotton planter may rest at ease on that score, for a time at least.

"It is only the common blood weevil," said State Entomologist Newell, in speaking of the matter. "It is somewhat similar in appearance to the Mexican boll weevil, but it is much larger and longer. The two bugs do not even belong to the same family. I have found this bug in all parts of the south, and so far as I know it does not materially damage cotton."

CARNEGIE READY TO DONATE.

Founder of Libraries Promise Cash to the Republican Campaign. A Washington dispatch says: Andrew Carnegie has sent word to President Roosevelt that he need not worry over rumors that the moneyed interests of Wall street are not disposed to chip into the republican campaign fund.

The founder of libraries says he stands ready to contribute any reasonable sum up to a million dollars, if necessary, to offset any defections by the rich Wall street men.

BRYAN LOSES WILL CASE.

"Sealed Letter" Excluded from Ben Harrison's Last Testament by Jury. A finding that the sealed letter by which Philip S. Bennett expressed a wish that $50,000 should be given to William J. Bryan and his family was not a part of the last will of Mr. Bennett, was returned by the jury Thursday in the superior court at New Haven, in the trial of Mr. Bryan's appeal from the decision of the probate court.

GEORGIA NEWS.

Epitomized Items of Interest Gathered at Random.

Sale of B. and B. Road Confirmed. At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Brunswick and Birmingham railroad in Brunswick, the sale of that road to the Atlantic and Birmingham was confirmed, the latter taking active charge on April 1st.

Lyerly Visited by Robbers. The town of Lyerly was visited by thieves a few nights ago. H. & B. Brown's safe was blown open and about $500 in cash stolen. The postoffice was robbed of about $300 in stamps and cash. The robbery is supposed to be the work of professional safe blowers.

Five Years in Pen for Moore. W. E. Moore, the negro lawyer of Guyton, who was convicted of embezzling funds in the United States court at Savannah the past week, has been sentenced by Judge Speer to serve five years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, and also to pay a fine of $1000.

Steamer Named For Atlanta. The new ocean going ship of the Ocean Steamship Company will be named City of Atlanta. This has been definitely decided upon and has been officially announced by the president of the company to both Mayor Howell and President McCall, of the Atlanta chamber of commerce.

The new ship is no building at Chester, Pa., and it is understood that it will be launched in about two months. It will be one of the finest of the vessels of the Ocean Steamship Company and one of the finest ships that ply between southern ports and those of the north.

Damage Done by Caterpillar. State Entomologist Newell has just issued an important bulletin relating to the cotton caterpillar and the damage it has done in Georgia.

The bulletin gives into details, and prescribes means for getting rid of the pest. Any one desiring a copy can secure it upon application to State Entomologist Newell.

During the summer of 1903 the cotton caterpillar was the cause of considerable damage in several counties of northern Georgia, notably in Baker, Crawford, Chatham, Dooly, Houston, Laurens, Lowndes, Macon, Mitchell, Pulaski, Randolph, Stewart, Sumter and Taylor counties. While the damage in any one locality was not excessive, yet the loss of the aggregate amount to the cotton crop and in many of the infested fields the "top crop" was entirely destroyed.

Can a Poor Boy Go to College? So many boys say they would like to have an education but they have no money. I wish to say to those boys on the farm and in the shop that a college course is in their reach if they have the necessary energy and determine to have an education. One of the most prominent young men in South Georgia started to college after he was twenty-one. He borrowed $100 a year from the Brown fund, lived on the plainest food, worked during the summer, got some help from his college mates who saw his worth, won his diploma and secured the practice of law. His hundred dollars in debt, but with the best education of any young man in his county. He has paid back the debt, is in comfortable circumstances and is the general of his circuit. Was it not better to enter business life in debt with a good education than to go through life handicapped by lack of preparation?

When men, women and young men of world struggling for a college course they are willing to lend him a helping hand. Alexander Stephens helped our fifty boys in this way. Fully a third of the boys at the University now are working, borrowing and paying their own way. I know a young man from Rabun county twenty-four years of age who wants to learn all he can about agriculture and horticulture as well as the other subjects of a liberal education. He boards with the professor on the farm at $7.00 a month and gets ten cents an hour for his extra work. He is making all his expenses. There is room for another boy with him. About sixty boys earn extra money in the University by doing odd jobs. Several young ladies last summer paid all their expenses at the summer school folding and stitching in this office. I know many boys who teach four months and go to college the following autumn. I know many young men who are working and paying their own way.
